Macaulay's History of England,

FROM THE ACCESSION OF JAMES THE SECOND.

WILLIAM CURRY and Co., 9, Upper Sackville-street, Dublin, are still receiving the names of subscribers, to whom copies will be forwarded with despatch immediately on publication.

Scott's Commentary on the Bible.

NEW SUBSCRIPTION ISSUE OF SCOTT'S COMMENTARY ON THE HOLY BIBLE.

Notwithstanding the large circulation to which this Commentary has already attained, the demand for it is still so great, that the Publishers have determined to issue another Edition at such a price as will enable many persons to procure it who could not do so at the price at which it was recently published—viz., SIX GUINEAS.

This is the only complete Edition that is, or can be, offered to the public, having the final additions and emendations of the author, extending to upwards of Four Hundred pages, which consist chiefly of Critical Remarks, most important to the Biblical Student.

The Work contains an elaborate and compendious view of the Scripture Evidences—an introduction to each Book in the Old and New Testament, with a statement of its purport and intent—copious Marginal References, various Tables, and a Chronological Index. There is also an extensive Topical Index, which places the whole contents of the Work before the Student, and which will be found of great use in the selection of subjects, or for the elucidation of doctrines.

There are also Fifteen Maps and Sixty-Nine Steel Engravings, Illustrative of Scripture Incidents and Scenery.

COMMENDATORY NOTICES:—"It is the Comment of our Age."—Bishop of Calcutta.

"The writer has never consulted Mr. Scott's Commentary, on difficult passages, in vain. In every instance he found brief but solid refutations of alleged contradictions, which he could find in no other work in the English Language."—Rev. T. Hartwell Horne.

"I believe it exhibits more of the mind of the Spirit in the Scriptures than any other work of the kind extant."—Rev. Andrew Fuller.

"I never like to preach a Sermon without having seen what Scott says about it. If he takes the same view, I consider then that I am tolerably safe."—Rev. J. Harrington Evans.

The Work was originally published at EIGHT GUINEAS, and subsequently reduced to SIX GUINEAS. It is now offered for a limited period, viz., till the 31st December, at the low price of THREE GUINEAS, to parties who may be desirous of subscribing for a copy of the Work, and who are requested to forward their names, with a Post-office order for TEN SHILLINGS, as part payment, to

WILLIAM CURRY AND COMPANY,
9, UPPER SACKVILLE-STREET, DUBLIN.

It is expected the Work will be completed soon after the date above named, handsomely bound in purple cloth and on the closing of the subscription list the price will be again raised,

NEW TRANSLATION OF THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

Just Published, Royal 4to, Price 5s.,

The Second Epistle of Peter; the Epistles of John and Judas, and the Revelation.

(Translated from the Greek.)

On the basis of the common English Version, with Notes.

This Volume will be followed by other portions of the Scriptures from time to time, as they pass through the hands of the Translators. This revision is not final, but is circulated in the expectation that it will be subjected to a thorough criticism, in order that its imperfections, whatever they may be, may be disclosed and corrected.

"I am obliged to you for giving me an opportunity of examining a specimen of the new great Biblical enterprise in America, of which I had heard much previously. The impression made on my mind is that the undertaking is a valuable one, and that it seems to be in the hands of men of sound views, as far as can be estimated from a short specimen. As to the translation of Job, there seems to be evidence of an extensive acquaintance with what the Germans have done in this department. On the whole, my cursory examination has been as satisfactory as such an examination can be."—Extract of Letter from the Rev. G. Sidney Smith, D.D., Professor of Biblical Greek, Trinity College, Dublin.

London—Trübner and Co. Agents for Ireland: WILLIAM CURRY and Co., 9 Upper Sackville-street, Dublin.

Just published, in One Volume 8vo., 16s., or with Coloured Plates, 21s.

Preparing for Publication, in 12mo.,

The World in which I Live, and my Place in it,
BY E. S. A.

Edited by the Rev. JOHN H. BROOME.

The object of this book is to present a succinct history, from the creation to the present time, in connection with Scripture, and with the progress of the Church of Christ.

It is hoped that this slight sketch of the History of the World and of the Church may help the young reader to discern God's moral government and man's duty.

The study of History invariably inculcates principles.

The Romish Church, alive to this fact, is most careful that the Histories put into the hands of her children shall be those of her own writers. But the Protestant Church has hitherto possessed no Epitome of History sufficiently simple to meet the requirements of her youthful students.

The plan of the book embraces a general view of the History of all known nations, having regard to their chronological connection with each other, with copious and comprehensive indexes; and by thus commencing the study of history from the beginning, a good foundation will be laid for the fuller study of any particular History.

The Book will be Published by Subscription, price 5s. 6d., and the Names of intending Subscribers are requested to be sent as early as possible to Wertheim and Macintosh, Paternoster-row, London, or to their Agents for Ireland, WILLIAM CURRY and Co., 9, Upper Sackville-street.
